VETERINARY SCHOOL NURSERY TRUST OF NEW ENGLAND

Remember what it was like getting your first "homework assignment" just being able to read the first page of a book? We know you did it, but being able to read the whole book is a different story. It's a challenge, but it's also a reward. We're proud of you for taking on the challenge and for being able to read the whole book. We're proud of you for being able to read the whole book. We're proud of you for being able to read the whole book.

"I am grateful for the financial support and look forward to the day when I can go back and contribute to another veterinary education."
